Time: 3 Hours Full Marks—100

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions following it (1-3).

Social value stands for a set of principles of norms and behaviour of a society that are widely acceptable among its people. A society's life style is fully governed by its existing values. In the past, the social values covered a wide range of positive aspects. The people were simple, honest, sincere, responsible, pious and sympathetic. They turned against any wrong doing boldly. Their life was designed wholly under the watchwords, like- 'Honesty is the best policy'. But those social values are no longer in practice in the present age. The people are self-centered and can do anything for personal flourishment. The social values have been replaced by conspiracy, faithlessness, envy, dishonesty, complexity and corruption. The present social values are the outcome of the materialistic world that values money more than anything else. The matter of humanity seems to be outdated by corruption all around of our life. Now people rush after name, fame and wealth even through an immoral way. The few honest and simple minded people find it frightening to raise their voice against all these malpractices. The web of bribery and corruption has wrapped up the whole society. To save humanity we must raise awareness among people about the consequences of their wrong doings. They must be motivated to follow the values of the past for bringing about peace and harmony in the society. The reservation of our past social values will make a better world for living.
